

Master Your Disaster Workshops

Mr. Sutton will gladly come to your group, church or family and conduct workshops and/or presentations. His suggested fee is flexible. Please help cover our travel. More information is on our web site or by contacting us by phone or email.

Workshops:

- Basic Workshop on Hoarding Disorder,
- The Process of Hoarding Resolution Workshop,
- Workshop to Train Volunteers in the Protocols of Hoarding Resolution,
- Freedom From Torment Seminar (faith-based),
- Hope For The Hoarder Workshop,
- God's Prescription For Wholeness (faith-based),
- Restoration Workshop (faith-based),
- Life Seminar (faith-based).

All workshops are upbeat and take a restorative approach. Workshops typically last three hours, but can be altered to fit a particular need such as splitting a workshop to only do a portion on a Friday night and continue on a Saturday morning. Mr. Sutton also has shorter presentations for group or church service settings. Most presentations use multimedia and require suitable projection set up. Please see inside of this brochure about how to schedule Mr. Sutton.

Introducing Terry Sutton

For over 40 years Terry Sutton has been a teacher and encourager. His passion for teaching began as a 21 year old with the YMCA and went from there to include over thirty years of pastoral ministry with churches in Alabama and Texas. He also served as an adjunct college professor and finally worked in the insurance industry and with ServiceMaster where he routinely taught continuing education classes to more than 1,000 insurance professionals a year. He has taught in hundreds of settings, both large and small. He is a sought after speaker for civic groups, professional groups and faith-based groups. His topics range in theme, but they all have three common threads; Personal Relationships, Freedom and Restoration. In recent years he has given more and more of his time to helping those affected with Hoarding Disorder. His humorous, kind and engaging style has proven to be popular and effective.
